BIG LIVERY FIRE

John C. Young, Jr.'s, Outfit Completely Destroyed.

At about 3 o'clock Friday morning the livery of John C. Young, Jr., was discovered to be completely enveloped in flame. The alarm was turned in, but no means could be done to save the livery outfit, and the attention of the firemen was given to adjoining buildings. The property on the east soon caught fire and was badly damaged. The occupants had to be routed out of bed, and some were quite badly burned. The weather conditions, however, were favorable; for if there had been a strong west wind, the whole block would have been in grave danger.

Mr. Young lost sixteen horses with all of the other equipage. Others losing horses were Dr. G. W. Bates, Dr. T. B. Payne, Col. Sanford Sellers and Ike Gratz. Insurance was carried on both the building and livery outfit. The building belonged to Col. Sellers.

Body Found on Sand Bar.

The skeleton of a man was found on a sand bar opposite of Dover last Friday. Only the bones and some of his clothing were left, and nothing that would lead to his identity. A double breasted blue flannel shirt and a pair of over shoes were all that was left of his clothing. A cheap silver watch was also found. The body is supposed to have been there since last February.

Saloon Licenses Granted.

The county court Monday granted the following saloon licenses: Wm. J. Fetty, Alma; Henry C. Angelback, Concordia; Henry A. Angelback, Concordia; H. C. Kriankamp, Concordia; H. C. Carter, Wellington; Alex. Denton, Wellington; J. H. Gaussman, Wellington; McIntyre & Mitchell, Inc., C. Glish, Gustave Haerle (4), Ira Hayden, Shinn & Ruby, Wm. Palmer, Kyleen & Anderson and W. H. Veach, all of Lexington.

Masons Banquet.

Lexington Lodge No. 149 A. F. & A. M., observed St. John's day Friday night by a banquet to the members, their wives, sisters, sweethearts and friends. About one hundred and fifty were present, and a most enjoyable time was had.

Sheriff Wm. H. Waddell yesterday morning was the recipient of a beautiful silver mounted six shooter with ammunition enough to last nine years, and a sixty candle power search light. The gifts were from his grandson in Meeker, Colorado. The letter accompanying the gifts contained some very pertinent advice as to how to use both articles. Ask the Sheriff about it.

"Irvin" Jay Harding went Sunday in Richmond.

J. R. Moorehead went to Kansas City Monday morning on business.

Mrs. H. B. Tunstall and daughter, Miss Sophia, went to Kansas City Monday for a few days' visit.

Mrs. J. C. Young, Sr., went to Kansas City Monday morning to spend the day.

Miss Blanche Hix left Monday morning for a visit with relatives in Chariton, Iowa.

G. H. Sims left yesterday for his home in Searcy, Ark., after a short visit here with his son, Robert.

Thank You, Mr. Wright.

The manager of Wright's Grand, C. C. Wright, gave the people of Lexington an opportunity Tuesday night of seeing one of the best Comic Opera Companies on the road. Those who like this sort of amusement could not have wished for anything better than the Prince of Tonight. The company was a capable one from top to bottom. Tom Arnold, in the leading role, has a most pleasing stage personality. He has a good voice and knows how to use it. His acting was good. The principal woman's part was very acceptably taken by Eva Carey, who by-the-way, graduated from Lexington College in the class of 1900. The other parts were capably handled, and in the ensemble numbers a striking concert impressed the audience that they were listening to a mighty good chorus. The costumes and scenery were clean and pretty. The lighting effects were beautiful.

The next attraction will be 'Brewsters Millions.'

A Fatal Accident.

Saturday morning, Chaney Cole, a well known farmer of this county, while in the act of removing his shot gun from a rack on the wall, discharged the weapon, hitting his wife in the back of the head and killing her instantly. The family live near Sheep's Nose, about six and one-half miles northeast of Lexington. The coroner on investigation exonerated Mr. Cole of any blame in the unfortunate affair.

The body of Mrs. Cole was taken to Richmond Sunday morning for burial.

"Their Yesterdays."

Wednesday saw the passing of three county officials who have served their allotted time as such and are now private citizens of this county. They return to private life with the best wishes of every citizen who is at all familiar with their official acts. Their work has been conscientious, intelligent and far reaching in the betterment of the administration of the affairs of their respective offices. We allude to C. A. Keith, Winfield S. Peacock and Chas. Hoefer, who have retired from the offices of prosecuting attorney, sheriff and treasurer respectively.

Messrs. Peacock and Hoefer have moved their families to Higginsville where they will

Dover Notes.

Mrs. Walter Trent came home Saturday from a two week's visit with her son, Stewart Trent, and wife.

TIME TO RENEW

JANUARY 1 is the logical time to renew your subscription to THE INTELLIGENCER. As we are closing up our books for the year 1912 and are opening new books for 1913 every reader of this paper should send in his renewal without delay.

We are pleased to announce that we have made arrangements with the DAILY DROVERS TELEGRAM of Kansas City whereby you can secure this big modern daily newspaper in connection with THE INTELLIGENCER at a special rate. The Telegram publishes the general telegraphic news of the world on the day it happens. It is a fine family newspaper. Has a special woman's editor and a score of interesting features for all members of the family. Every farmer needs the daily reports of the markets on cattle, hogs, sheep, grain, hay, poultry and eggs which enable you to secure from 5 per cent to 20 per cent more cash for everything sold off the farm.

The regular subscription price of the DAILY DROVERS TELEGRAM is $4.00 a year. If you will send $4.00 to us you will secure both the TELEGRAM and our own paper both one year.

make their home. Mr. Keith will continue to be one of us and resume the practice of law.

To the new comers, The Intelligencer extends greetings. Wm. Aull, Jr., probably the youngest prosecuting attorney in the state, comes amply equipped to perform, without fear or favor, the duties of his office. His administration may be anticipated as a most successful one.

W. H. Waddell will be sheriff. His wide acquaintance with the people and the affairs of county, makes him peculiarly fitted for the office. He will have for his deputy in Lexington his son, Joseph M. Waddell, and in Higginsville W. T. Tutt. Arthur Clapp will remain for a while a deputy in this city.

The county funds will be well cared for by Ike H. Noyes, the county treasurer. Mr. Noyes' training has been along lines adaptable to this office, and during his term the people of Lafayette county may rest assured that its monetary affairs will be carefully looked after.

County Judges Rolf and Larkin were reelected by increased majorities, which speaks more forcibly than anything that could be written at this time. Their duties have been performed in a manner highly creditable to themselves and to the entire satisfaction of the tax payers of the county.

Robert Fox came home Sunday from Alliance, Nebr., where he has been at work for the past six months.

Mr. Leo Mayer of Fulton and Wilmot Knapp of Lexington were guests of Miss Helen Cole Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Shelby and family and Mr. and Mrs. Gratz Shelby of Bates City visited with relatives here Tuesday.

W. S. McGee and sister, Miss Minnie, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Lexington.

Albert Lewis, R. L. Fox and Rudolph Yuley were in Higginsville Tuesday.

Mr. Emmet Slusher resigned his position as teacher at the Garr school last week. The vacancy was supplied by Miss Ruth Lewis who began teaching Monday.

Miss Helen Cole entertained about fifty of her young friends last Friday night. The evening was very pleasantly spent with games, music and social conversation. Refreshments were served consisting of cakes and ice cream.

Married in Kansas City on Wednesday, Jan. 1st, 1913, Mr. Curtis Gray and Miss Mollie Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Gray are expected to arrive here the last of the week for a visit with their uncle, John Cooper and family.

Robert Holman and family of Lexington visited with relatives here this week.

Sometime ago William Winn

fell from a wagon and caught the third finger on his left hand so lacerating it that it became necessary to amputate it. Dr. Ryland of Lexington came down Tuesday and he and Dr. Harwood performed the operation.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM Baking Powder

Purity in food, lower cost of living—these are the demands of the day.

Pure food is health, and health is economy itself. We cannot have health without healthful food.

The most healthful foods are the quickly raised flour foods—biscuit, cake, muffins, crusts and other pastry, when perfectly made from wholesome ingredients.

Dr. PRICE'S baking powder makes these foods in specially attractive, appetizing and wholesome form, and for both economic and hygienic reasons, such food should be more largely substituted for meat in the daily diet.

But bear in mind that alum, or unwholesome baking powder, can never make pure, wholesome food.
